JOKE CORNER

GIVE A MAN A FISH, and you feed him the day. Teach a man to fish, and he's going to spend a fortune on gear that he will use only twice a year.

PEOPLE WHO THINK that time heals everything haven't sat it out in a doctor's waiting room.

AS I WATCHED the dog chasing his tail, I thought "Dogs are easily amused."

Then I realized I was watching the dog chasing his tail.

BEAUTIFICATION COMMITTEE

Beautification met Feb. 3rd

Thank you to Joe Wilson for the $150 for the new poinciana tree to be planted this spring thank you to Theresa Smith for the $500 dollars for the planting in the entrance. Thank you to Shirley Schofield for the $100 donation. Discussion was held about the front entrance plantings.

Robert and Barbara Smith received the annual award for most improved yard, with an honorable mention to Theresa Smith for her lovely pots of flowers in their yard. The progress in redoing the entrance is moving as fast as it can. The wires and plumbing all needed fixing now, new dirt and clean the walls. All old plants have been removed.

Next meeting is March 3rd in card room at 9:30am. More discussion to be done and plans approved. We are fortunate to have Shannon Benedetti from Fiddler's Creek attending. She is their head planner for all plantings there and has some suggestions for us to consider...all are welcome to attend

Thank you, Karen Beaver (414) 617-0720

KEEWAYDIN ISLAND DAY OF FUN (SPONSORED BY THE FISHING CLUB)

The ESC Fishing Club has finalized plans for their Keewaydin Island Day of Fun for running a pontoon boat shuttle from our docks here and The Isle of Capri to Keewaydin Island on Wednesday, March 2nd. Over 50 participants are joining them! It's sure to be a day filled with sun and fun with their ESC friends (and maybe meet some new ones from ESC) on Keewaydin Island! The weather forecast looks perfect!

IMPORTANCE OF TITLE INSURANCE

Buying in a co-op mobile park makes title insurance a really important consideration. The buyer is dealing with several issues unique to this situation. First, the land is leased (exclusive right of possession.) Second, the buyer becomes a shareholder of the co-op—so land is not owned by the buyer. This is why nothing can be done on the outside without a permit. Third, the buyer receives a title to the structure (just like a vehicle) provided all open permits from the county are closed.

A title company guarantees that all legal requirements have been met. After all the requirements have been met, the sale has to be recorded in the courthouse. In the event the title company misses anything, the buyer gets the purchase money back if the issues cannot be resolved.

If all of these are not met, a problem can arise later when the buyer goes to sell. So now the next buyer gets title insurance and a problem is found during the search. If all the conditions were not met by the seller, then the seller legally does not own the property. It has been my experience where the title company has had to find owners prior to the current seller and have them sign titles over to the current owner so the property can be transferred to the current buyer.

It is important to find a title company that has experience with co-op mobile parks and how they are governed. I have heard of some that issued general warranty deeds which do not apply to our co-op. Some have failed to get titles to the structure. By the way, single wides have one title and double wides have two titles.

If one is willing to risk losing the purchase price, then title insurance is not important. However, if the possibility of losing the purchase price is a factor—get title insurance.
